ORTHOPEDIC SPECIALISTS OF SEATTLE WELCOMES MARK D. WAGNER, MD

April 8th, 2016 (Seattle, WA.) – Orthopedic Specialists of Seattle is pleased to announce Dr. Mark D. Wagner is joining the OSS team. Dr. Wagner will be conducting office hours by appointment, starting Monday, May 2nd, 2016.

Bringing with him over 25 years of experience, Dr. Mark Wagner is highly regarded as a leader in the field of Sports Medicine. He treats a wide range of individuals, from professional, collegiate & high school athletes to recreational, weekend warriors. It is Dr. Wagner's goal to provide his patients with individualized, state-of-the-art treatment, returning each patient to their natural mobility as quickly as possible.

He has a special interest in regenerative medicine and joint preservation through the use of stem-cells, an easy in-office non-surgical approach, which has shown much promise in restoring, repairing and regenerating arthritic joints.

Dr. Wagner is board-certified by the American Board of Family Practice with a subspecialty in Sports Medicine. He received his medical degree from the University of South Florida in Tampa, Florida. He completed his residency in Family Practice and Sports Medicine at Halifax Hospital Medical Center in Daytona Beach, followed by a fellowship in Sports Medicine at The Sports Clinic in Seattle. In 2014, he was awarded the prestigious title of Diplomate of the American Academy of Family Practice.

Dr. Mark Wagner is excited to be part of Orthopedic Specialists of Seattle and is looking forward to treating patients.
